

All those in favor vote aye, opposed vote no. Simple majority. Motion (sic) of those present...majority of those present. Twenty-four votes required to overrule the Chair. The question is, shall the Chair be overruled? Please record your vote. Have you all voted? Have you all voted? The Clerk will record the vote.

CLERK: 16 ayes, 25 nays, Mr. President, on the challenge to the Chair.

PRESIDENT: The motion fails. Senator Nichol.

SPEAKER NICHOL: Mr. President, members of the Legislature, guess it is good every once in awhile to blow off steam. Now that we've done that, I really suggest and ask you to be a little more tolerant of each other, to be a little more cooperative, not that you give in or give up of what you think is right. But I think we can proceed on a more mannerly, orderly basis than we have the last few hours. So I would simply ask you to do it. Thank you.

PRESIDENT: That's a very nice request, Senator Nichol. Senator Marsh, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR MARSH: We're back where we were, Mr. President. I move that we adopt the amendment pending before us. That motion is to put displaced homemakers back into the budget so that we can continue to be the beneficiaries of state tax dollars.

PRESIDENT: The call of the house is raised.

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, I would ask that you refrain from calling the house not together. While we're still here we can take a vote and not have to have an immediate call of the house because I was ready to ask for a call of the house before this last maneuver.

PRESIDENT: Very well. I have raised the call for this time because a number of members...

SENATOR MARSH: Mr. President, may I please request that a call of the house be issued, please.

PRESIDENT: You may request that, Senator, and the question now is, shall the house come under call? All those in favor
